Excerpt: . . . 11 All VA staffed clinic sites provide primary care, mental health and podiatry services. A concerted effort has been made to provide specialty services locally. In Corpus Christi, for example, an ortho-pedic surgeon visits the clinic bi-weekly. A sharing agreement with the Corpus Christi Naval Hospital provides optometry, audiology and general surgery services. The Corpus Christi clinic also has a radiology unit, pharmacy and physical therapy programs. Services are also provided in local communities through contract. In the lower Rio Grande Valley, for example, the VA, through a contract with community hospitals, provides outpatient surgery such as colonoscopies, hernia repairs and cataract surgery and short-stay admissions. Staff vacancies in several critical positions remain an ongoing problem delivering these services. Forty-eight percent of South Texas employees are over age 50 and 75 percent of senior executives are eligible for retirement. Hard...
