Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Delivered by Request of the Selectmen, of the Town of St. Albans: Friday, August 2, 1850, of the Death of General Zachary Taylor, Late President of the United States My Friends and Fellow-citizens: The respected officers to whom you have committed the civil authority of your town, have called you together this day, to mark an occurrence of rare and peculiar interest. Regarding it as fit that there be some public demonstration of the feelings of this community respecting the national calamity occasioned by the death of General Zachary Taylor, late President of the United States, they have invited you to manifest your sympathy on what they have most truly called an afflicting dispensation; and have assigned to me the duty of expressing the sentiments appropriate to an event, which is invested with no ordinary importance and solemnity. In accepting the office, however, thus kindly conferred, you will permit me to premise, that I have not been influenced by any confidence in my powers to do justice to the occasion. I see around me...
