A group of teenagers are tragically drawn together after the suicide death of one of their classmates. In their deep searching for answers to his death they are all drawn to Uncle Herm. Uncle Herm was their friend and mentor. Herm was easy to search with and they met with Uncle Herm on a regular basis. They were a no-name group until one day Paul came rushing in to the discussion with a frenzied look. He had been listening to some radio program proclaiming that events in the Middle East were ripe for the battle of Armageddon to begin right away. This sets the stage for the rest of the book as these group of kids and Uncle Herm explore all of the hot topics of the endtimes: Israel, Antichrist, rapture and of course the big one, Armageddon. Editorial Reviews Four teenagers search for answers when they are left behind after a tragic suicide. With Uncle Herm as their guide, Paul, Kristy, Chuck, and Francis look at life, death, church, the rapture, and Armageddon as they search for the reason they were left behind. Noah, Moses, Joseph, and David were all called to leave their former lives and become someone new in the Kingdom of God. They left behind what they had known and followed the dream of serving God.
