Mr. Sumner says: The number of pupils in the school has varied, for some time past, from 80 to 100. At 5 o'clock they rise, and pass half an hour in washing, combing, and dressing; the monitors--pupils more advanced, --aiding those whose instruction is but recently commenced. They then pass into the hall of classes, and range themselves in a double line, no easy task for the beginners; when they sing a simple morning prayer, repeated to them by the teacher. After this, they make their first breakfast, of a simple slice of bread. The class for the education of the senses now begins, and fills up the time till 1-4 A. M. In the 1st or highest division, several occupy themselves with surface and landscape drawing; and others, less advanced, with geometrical drawing upon...
